MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE GENERAL LAWS (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND COMBATING TERRORISM FINANCING) AMENDMENT BILL, 2022

1. BACKGROUND TO THE BILL

- 1.1 The money laundering, terrorism financing and proliferation financing of weapons of mass destruction regulatory landscape is constantly evolving, necessitating improvements to the regulatory framework to maintain the integrity of South Africa's financial system. South Africa's commitment to combating money laundering, terrorism financing and proliferation financing ("AML/CFT/CPF") is demonstrated through the enactment of various pieces of legislation aimed at combating financial crime. The Financial Intelligence Centre Act, 2001 (Act No. 38 of 2001) ("the FIC Act"), is one of the pieces of legislation that was enacted to meet the international standards in relation to the combating of financial crimes. The Financial Action Task Force ("the FATF") is an inter-governmental body which sets standards and develops and promotes policies relating to AML/CFT/CPF. These standards are used as benchmarks in formal peer review and evaluation processes to test the robustness of a country's measures against these illicit activities, and the integrity of its financial systems.
- 1.2 South Africa was recently assessed by a joint International Monetary Fund, Eastern and Southern African Anti Money Laundering Group and the FATF assessment team that assessed South Africa's AML/CFT/CPF regime. The assessment included a review of the relevant AML, CFT and CPF laws and regulations, and the supervisory and regulatory systems in place to deter money laundering and terrorism and proliferation financing. Weaknesses in the regulatory framework identified in the mutual evaluation process highlight the need to ensure that South Africa has a robust AML/CFT/CPF regulatory framework. In identifying issues requiring review, consideration is given to the Mutual Evaluation Report prepared by the assessment team on ways to improve South Africa's legal and institutional framework, and to strengthen the implementation of measures to combat money laundering, terrorism financing and proliferation financing.
- 1.3 Following the adoption of the Mutual Evaluation Report, South Africa must now report to the FATF on a regular basis on the steps taken to improve the South African system to combat money laundering, terrorism financing and proliferation financing. The first such follow-up report will be made in October 2022. A large portion of the actions that South Africa is to take in this process involve amendments to the FIC Act, including the Schedules to the FIC Act. In order to demonstrate clearly in October 2022 that South Africa remains politically committed to the process of continuous improvement, the country should be able to report that a process to implement the necessary legislative changes is well under way.

2. OBJECTS OF THE BILL

2.1 Enhancing the Customer Due Diligence requirements of Accountable Institutions

The primary objective of the General Laws (Anti-Money Laundering and Combating Terrorism Financing) Amendment Bill, 2022 ("the Bill"), is to address the deficiencies identified in the Mutual Evaluation Report relating to the customer due diligence measures contained in the FIC Act. The amendments to the FIC Act contained in the Bill do not substantially change the principles on which the customer due diligence provisions are based. The proposed amendments will result in a stronger AML/CFT/CPF regulatory framework. A detailed explanation of each proposed amendment to the FIC Act is contained in paragraph 3.3.

2.2 Production of forensic evidence

Further ways were identified to improve South Africa’s legal and institutional framework, and to strengthen the implementation of measures to combat money laundering, terrorism financing and proliferation financing. These include a clear mandate for the Financial Intelligence Centre (“Centre”) to produce forensic evidence on the results of the analysis it produces that could be used as expert testimony in cases where this may be relevant in court proceedings.

2.3 Amendment of Schedule 2

Schedule 2 contains the list of supervisory bodies that are responsible for ensuring compliance with the provisions of the FIC Act. The objective of the proposed amendments to Schedule 2 to the FIC Act is to ensure effective supervision of the estate agency and gambling sector. Schedule 2 is amended to entrust the supervision of compliance with the FIC Act in the estate agency and gambling sectors to the Centre. The proposed amendments entail the removal of the references to the regulators of the estate agency and gambling sectors as supervisory bodies from Schedule 2 to the FIC Act. These proposed amendments are necessary to complete the process that is already underway in Parliament to effect other amendments to Schedule 2 to the FIC Act.

2.4 Centre’s access to databases and registers held by an organ of state

The Bill extends the powers of the Centre to request for information or for access to any database held by any organ of state as well as to have access to information contained in a register that is kept by an organ of state. This is necessary to ensure that the Centre has access to a sufficiently wide range of information that is held in the public sector to perform its functions effectively.

2.5 Addressing specific recommendations in the Mutual Evaluation Report through amendments to the Nonprofit Organisations Act, 1997, the Trust Property Control Act, 1998, the Companies Act, 2008, and the Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017

2.5.1 The Bill also addresses several recommendations in the Mutual Evaluation Report that necessitate amendments to the Trust Property Control Act, 1988 (Act No. 57 of 1988) (“the TPCA”), the Nonprofit Organisations Act, 1997 (Act No. 71 of 1997) (“the NPO Act”), the Companies Act, 2008 (Act No. 71 of 2008) (“the Companies Act”), and the Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017 (Act No. 9 of 2017) (“the FSRA”).

2.5.2 Recommendation 25 and IO.5—Amend the TPCA to provide legal framework for beneficial ownership information in respect of trusts:

- Require trustees to hold information on agents and service providers to trusts;
- Require all trustees to keep information which they obtain up to date and accurate;
- Provide for broader grounds for disqualification to be a trustee; and
- Provide for offences for trustees in respect of specified breaches of the TPCA.

2.5.3 Recommendation 8 and IO.10—Amend the NPO Act in line with Recommendation 8 requirements:

- Implement policy recommendations to improve the oversight of its broader Nonprofit Organisation (“NPO”) sector;
- Apply controls of the NPO Act to all NPOs, not just NPOs that register voluntarily; and
- Provide for offences and penalties in respect of specified contraventions of the NPO Act.

2.5.4 Recommendation 24 and IO.5—Amend the Companies Act to provide for a legal framework for beneficial ownership information in respect of companies:

- Provide for a requirement that companies must keep securities registers on shareholding up to date;
- Require that companies keep accurate and up-to-date information on their beneficial owners;
- Provide for a comprehensive mechanism through which the Companies and Intellectual Property Commission can keep accurate and updated beneficial ownership information; and
- Expand the grounds for disqualification to be a director of a company to include convictions for offences relating to money laundering, terrorist financing or proliferation financing activities.

2.6. Recommendation 26 and IO.03—Amend the FSRA to provide an enabling framework for financial sector regulators to test the fitness and propriety of beneficial owners of financial institutions as part of market entry controls and on an ongoing basis

- Provide a definition of “beneficial owner” in respect of financial institutions;
- Provide a legal mechanism through which financial sector regulators can test the honesty and integrity of beneficial owners of financial institutions and require them to provide relevant information regarding their beneficial ownership;
- Provide a legal mechanism through which financial sector regulators can require financial institutions to identify and verify their beneficial owners and require them to provide relevant information regarding their beneficial owners; and
- Enable financial sector regulators to take specified action against beneficial owners who contravene or are likely to contravene a financial sector law.

- 3.3.3.4 Further, clause 20 amends section 4 by removing the reference to accountable institutions being regulated by any other law, consistent with the recent amendments to Schedule 2 to the Act that removed a number of supervisory bodies and for which the Centre is now responsible for supervising and enforcing compliance of the Act.

3.3.7 Doubts about veracity of previously obtained information and when reporting suspicious and unusual transactions (Clause 24)

Section 21D deals with the process to be followed by accountable institutions when there are doubts about previously obtained CDD information from a client. Clause 24 extends this obligation to instances where an STR is made to the Centre.

- 3.3.8 Alignment of provisions and Schedules to appropriately refer to domestic and foreign “politically exposed persons”, as distinct from “prominent influential persons” (Definitions, Clauses 25–27 inserting sections 21F to 21H, Clauses 47–49 providing for amending Schedules 3A and 3B and the new Schedule 3C)

In order to appropriately align with FATF terminology and current requirements, it has been determined that it would be appropriate in the FIC Act to refer to distinguish between “politically exposed persons” and “prominent influential persons”. This is reflected through amendments to the definitions section noted above, sections 21F to 21H are amended to refer to a “foreign politically exposed person” and a “domestic politically exposed person”, rather than a “foreign prominent public official” or a “domestic prominent influential person”, as is currently the case. The sections are also amended to refer, where appropriate, to the category of a “prominent influential person”. Sections 79A and 79B and Schedules 3A and 3B are also amended accordingly to refer to “domestic politically exposed persons” and “foreign politically exposed persons”. A new section 79C and a new Schedule 3C are inserted to empower the Minister to designate categories of “prominent influential persons” and to amend the Schedule as appropriate.

- 3.3.9 Provisions relating to resolutions of the Security Council of the United Nations (Clauses 28 to 30 and clauses 32 to 34)

Clause 35 amends section 36(3) to also apply in relation to the furnishing of information that is requested by the Centre from another organ of state in terms of section 5(2).

3.3.13 Disclosure of information by the South African Revenue Service (Clause 36)

Section 36 requires the supervisory bodies and the South African Revenue Service to advise the Centre of certain unlawful activities it becomes aware of, including suspicious transactions in accordance with section 29. Section 37(1) provides that no duty of secrecy or confidentiality or any other restriction affects the compliance of the provisions of the FIC Act. In terms of section 37, these confidentiality rules apply to the South African Revenue Service. Section 70 of the Tax Administration Act, 2011 (Act No. 28 of 2011), provides for the manner in which the South African Revenue Service may disclose information to other entities, including the Centre. Clause 36, therefore, deletes the reference to the South African Revenue Service in respect of the application of the confidentiality rules set out in section 37, as section 70 of the Tax Administration Act provides the necessary safeguard in respect of the disclosure of information held by the South African Revenue Service.

3.3.14 Access to information held by the Centre (Clause 37)

The amendments in clause 37 are connected to the amendments explained in clauses 17, 18 and 19 which are required to also be addressed in section 40 dealing with the agencies that the Centre must share information that it holds with.

3.3.16 Risk Management and Compliance Programme (Clause 39)

3.3.16.1 Clause 39 amends section 42, which creates obligations for accountable institutions in relation to the Risk Management and Compliance Programme (RMCP). The amendments require accountable institutions to consider new as well as existing products or services that may involve or facilitate money laundering or terrorist financing activities.

3.3.16.2 The clause also extends the obligation to provide in the RMCP for the manner and process by which an accountable institution determines whether not only a prospective client is a foreign or a domestic politically exposed person or a prominent influential person, but to also include how it applies in respect of an existing client.

3.3.16.3 The clause also provides for the RMCP to include the process and manner when reporting suspicious and unusual transactions in accordance with section 21D.

3.3.16.4 In addition, clause 39 extends the obligation to provide in the RMCP for the manner and processes by which an accountable institution conducts enhanced due diligence for higher-risk business relationships to also include single transactions.

3.3.16.5 Clause 39 also provides for the additional obligation for accountable institutions to provide for the manner in which the institution will apply appropriate additional measures to manage the risks if the host country does not permit the implementation of measures required in terms of the Act.

3.3.16.6 Further, the clause makes provision for the manner and processes by which group-wide programmes of an accountable institution for all of its branches and majority owned subsidiaries are implemented, so as to enable the institution to comply with the requirements of the Act. This also extends to the exchange of information within its branches, subsidiaries or other operations relating to the analysis of suspicious or unusual transactions or activities. Accountable institutions are now also required to have adequate safeguards to protect the confidentiality of information exchanged in terms of the new requirements in this clause.

3.3.17 Offences provisions (Clauses 40 to 45)

Clauses 40 to 45 amend the sections of the Act (sections 49A, 50, 52, 57, 59 and 64) that did not provide for an administrative sanction to be imposed for failing to comply with a particular section in the Act. The clauses now make provision for both an administrative sanction to be imposed for failing to comply as well as the existing offence for a contravention of a particular section in the Act.

3.3.18 Amendment to the list of supervisory bodies (Clause 46)

3.3.18.1 Clause 46 amends section 75 to provide for the Minister to have the discretionary power, consistent in sections 73 and 76, to add to the list of supervisory bodies in Schedule 2 to the Act a supervisory body which will be responsible for supervising and enforcing compliance with the Act.

3.3.18.2 The clause also makes provision for the Minister to delete any supervisory body from Schedule 2 if the Minister reasonably believes that a supervisory body is not satisfactorily performing its supervisory or enforcement functions in terms of the Act.

3.3.19 Amendment to Schedule 2: List of Supervisory Bodies (Clause 50)

Clause 50 deletes the Estate Agency Affairs Board and the provincial licensing authorities defined in section 1 of the National Gambling Act, 2004 (Provincial Gambling Boards).
